

This is a final reminder that the application deadline for ITE offered fellowships/scholarships is April 1, 2009

Please click on the following link (<http://www.ite.org/awards/index.asp>) to access the brochure and learn more about applying for specific awards. Any applications or recommendations received after this date will not be considered by the judges.

Included in the brochure are various scholarships offered by many ITE Districts and Sections. Students should review those individual entries for application criteria and deadlines as many of them are different from the ITE deadlines. If you have questions or need more information, please utilize the contact information associated with these entries.
